Forms of Inquiry: The Architecture of Critical Graphic Design

curated by Zak Kyes

The Corridor

The Corridor is BolteLang's project space for new commissions, site specific installations and exhibitions. It is a space with restricted dimensions, related to the main gallery only geographically and therefore completely open to experimentation. The inherent conflict between the promise of infinite possibilities and spatial limitation is at the core of The Corridor.

Forms of Inquiry at The Corridor

Forms of Inquiry: The Architecture of Critical Graphic Design curated by Zak Kyes

Forms of Inquiry presents a group of contemporary, international graphic designers who base their work in critical investigation. The exhibition features works that have originated as self-propelled inquiry, either professional or personal, and have been developed into a myriad of media and forms. The exhibition expands as its travels, continually emphasising local research and sites for exchange.

The fifth constellation of Forms of Inquiry includes several new commissions and a four-week public programme, opening simultaneously at Archizoom, Lausanne on 26 February, 2009 and at The Corridor at BolteLang, Zurich on 27 February 2009 where a selection of Forms of Inquiry prints will be on view.
